What advice do you have for someone new to the mining industry?

Joey focuses on her abilities rather than her gender and her advice to other women is the same: let your passion lead you, not your gender.

Joanne Freeze

About Joanne

Ms. Freeze co-founded Candente Resource Corp. while living in Peru in 1997. As President and CEO, she took Candente public in 2001 and spearheaded significant mining project acquisitions through exploration to economic viability in Peru and Mexico as well as the split of Candente Resource Corp. into Candente Copper Corp. and Candente Gold Corp. (now Xali Gold Corp.) in 2009. Ms. Freeze guided the listing of the companies on the TSXV, TSX and an inter-listing on the Lima Stock Exchange (BVL).

As CEO, Joanne directs corporate strategies with respect to finances, merger and acquisition opportunities, government, institutional and shareholder relations, social responsibility and sustainability and resource allocation. To date, under her leadership, the Candente group of companies have collectively raised over $100 million in equity financings for mineral exploration.
